Health: Pharma Lions

The Pharma Lions celebrate creative communications from pharmaceutical clients and services surrounding this highly-regulated industry. Work that brings science and innovation to life, facilitating diagnosis, prescription, disease mitigation or illness management for practitioners, patients and targeted consumers.

Pharma Lions champion the need for medicine and therapeutic care. Communications in this arena bear the responsibility of introducing new innovations, establishing standards of care and advocating for the industry within a context that is often emotionally charged and sometimes full of controversy. These communications must navigate debates about patient rights, policies and politics, society and humanity. Often delivered in healthcare settings, they require a significant level of appropriateness and respect for the people who treat or suffer from medical conditions. Some communications are delivered through a healthcare professional. Many are subject to regulatory review. All are created specifically for medical and therapeutic clients and services.

- All work entered into Pharma Lions has been created specifically to shape understanding of medical conditions, drive their treatment and/or advocate for the development or provision of those treatments.
- Industry institutions include pharmaceuticals, biopharmaceuticals, biotechnology, bioinnovations, medical devices, diagnostics, life sciences research, clinics, hospitals, healthcare systems, governments and advocacy organizations for human and veterinary health.
- There is no overall limit to how many times the same piece of work can be entered into Pharma as long as the categories and mediums chosen are relevant.
- For the purpose of Pharma Lions the following definitions apply:
- Regulated Work that is regulated regardless of mention of a specific branded product, service, therapy or company. For products or services which must adhere to strict regulatory compliance and compulsory fair balance copy. All entrants must provide regulatory requirements for your region in relation to your submission.
- Non-regulated Work that is not regulated regardless of mention of a specific branded product, service, therapy or company. For communications about disease or products and services that may not require regulatory review but are used to treat diagnosed medical conditions and/or support patient's needs. May include supplementary or additional treatment options from industry institutions other than pharmaceuticals; such as devices, implants, instruments, apparatus and diagnostic tools.

A. Product or Service Promotion

Work created to drive choice for a specific branded product, service or therapy intended for management of a disease or medical condition that is diagnosed and treated by a healthcare professional.

A01. Regulated: Direct to Consumer

SUPPORTING MATERIAL GUIDELINES

Supporting materials are the most important elements of your entry. This is what the judges will examine, watch and read during their decision-making. Each Lion has different material requirements. In some cases, they are mandatory and in some, they are recommended or optional.

It's important to remember there are strict rules about adding extra information or replacing files once you've submitted your entry. Please make sure you are absolutely ready to submit before you pay. If new results are collected after the entry has been paid for, we will only accept additional written information in the results section of the entry form before 30th April 2022.

This does not apply to entry media e.g. case films and JPGs, which cannot be updated under any circumstances. In order to avoid your work being withdrawn from the festival, please adhere to the following guidelines:

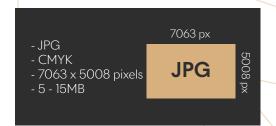

- All case films and presentation images must be in English.
- Work which was not originally published in English (TVCs, print ads, billboards etc.) can be translated or subtitled exactly as it was published or aired, so that they can be understood by the English-speaking jury.
- If translating original video work, please note that dubbing is not allowed. Voiceovers can be translated but visible speech must be kept in the original language and subtitled.
- Supporting materials must not contain any reference to your agency or any contributing creative companies or individuals.
