READY TO GET STARTED?

HERE'S THE PROCESS

1. Appoint an award manager

Choose someone within your company to coordinate your entry and act as the first point of communication with us.

2. Check the rules and eligibility

Verify your work's eligibility by checking our key dates, deadlines and other key criteria. A summary can be found here but make sure you download Entry Kit: The Rules for the full list.

3. Get to know the Awards

Once you've checked to make sure your work is eligible, use this Entry Kit to explore where you might like to enter. This document details each of the Lions, their categories and their judging criteria.

4. Explore our guides and resources

Read the Guide to the Awards for a step-by-step walk through of how to enter, and what happens once you've submitted. Then, take a look at our 'What you need to know' guides, available via the Lions pages for Award specific advice, alongside examples of past winners and Jury feedback. Finally, explore the Winners Spotlight for examples of winning work and insights from winners.

5. Create your entries

Once you've got to grips with the Lion/s you want to enter, log into the Awards portal and follow the instructions to create an entry. The entry process is intentionally rigorous to protect the prestige of winning, so make sure you allow yourself enough time to complete it.

6. Entry support

The final section of this Entry Kit contains helpful definitions and supporting material guidelines. If you have any questions, head over to the Help page on the portal or the FAQ page on the website. If you can't find the answers you're looking for or would like category selection support, get in touch.

7. Submit and pay

Please only check out when your entry is 100% complete. By submitting an entry, you agree to pay the relevant entry fee. Once you've submitted, your entry will be thoroughly checked, and we may be in touch to ask for clarification or changes.

8. Judging

Juries review all entries across a multi-stage process to determine the work that makes the shortlist - and that goes on to be awarded. Make sure your award manager is available throughout this period, as the Jury may have questions about your work.

9. Results

The shortlists and winners will be announced on www.lovethework.com. The dates and timings of each announcement will be available on the Awards dates & fees page.

10. Trophies

Trophies and certificates are sent out to successful entrant companies after the Festival. We know that winning is a team effort, so if you want to share the excitement with other team members, duplicate trophies and certificates can be ordered for anyone credited on the entry.

BRAND: CREATIVE BRAND LIONS

The Creative Brand Lions recognises excellence in the creative capabilities that drive sustained business success for brands.

The work should demonstrate how brands strategically use creativity across their organisation to achieve measurable business growth, clear ROI, meaningful audience engagement and long-term brand value.

- A number of criteria will be considered during judging and weighted as follows: 25% creative innovation & originality; 25% strategic alignment; 25% scalability & sustainability; 25% commercial effectiveness.
- This Lion recognises brands that demonstrate exceptional internal creative capability building through organizational transformation and strategic investment in creative infrastructure. Instead of judging individual campaigns, this award celebrates the creative capabilities and strategic approaches that deliver measurable business growth and long-term brand value.
- All relevant strategic or implementation partners (e.g. agency, consultancy, technology partner) should be credited, but the focus must remain on the brand's internal capability development.
- There are no specific eligibility dates for the project or initiative itself within this Lion. However, projects must demonstrate at least 12 months of implementation to show systematic impact, with evidence of ongoing activity within the current eligibility period (06 Feb 2025 - 09 April 2026).
- Brands may submit the same project across multiple categories, provided that each entry is specifically tailored to demonstrate the relevance to that particular category. However, work submitted to the Creative Brand Lion is not eligible for submission to any other Lions.

COMMON INFORMATION

ENTRY TITLE

GIVE YOUR ENTRY A TITLE

To begin, you need to give your entry a title. We need this information before you select the Cannes Lions Award and categories you'd like to enter this work into. If you're entering this work into multiple categories, the title you give here will be applied across all those selected entries.

CHOOSE AWARD AND CATEGORIES

It's time to select the Cannes Lions Awards you'd like to enter with this piece of work. Entry limits within each Cannes Lions Award are different.

You may add, remove or edit the Awards or categories selected at a later stage before payment. You can find all the details about the Cannes Lions Awards on our website.

MULTIPLE EXECUTIONS INFORMATION

A campaign of executions is a group of entries that are linked by the same overarching creative idea. To be eligible, each entry in the campaign will promote the same product or service using the same medium. Each execution is a standalone entry and must be paid for individually. You can choose a series of 2 or more variations of the creative concept to submit as part of a campaign of executions.

*Only certain Awards and categories allow campaigns of executions. The Jury can choose to award just a single execution from the campaign, or they can choose to recognise the full series with a Campaign Award.

COMPANIES

WHICH COMPANIES WERE INVOLVED?

You are the Entrant Company and will be required to fill out your own information first. You may add as many additional companies as you wish. Each entry requires at least one 'Entrant Company' and one 'Idea Creation' company. Sometimes it will be the same company for both.

The Entrant Company is responsible for payment of entry fees and will be considered the sole contact for any entry-related queries. You should enter the companies in the order you'd like them to be published, as this is how they'll appear on your certificates.

When making your entry, please make sure you credit companies in the correct roles as this directly affects the calculations for the Special Awards.

IMPORTANT: You may be asked to return to this section to add more companies depending on the Cannes Lions Award and categories you select later (e.g. if you enter Media, you'll be asked to provide a company that played a 'Media Placement' role).

If your entry wins a Cannes Lions Award, companies and individuals credited here will automatically be eligible to purchase trophies and certificates.

DIGITAL SUPPORTING MEDIA (OPTIONAL)

You may also upload the following optional supporting digital materials with your entry. See the 'Video File Format Guidelines' for more information.

- digital supporting content.

SUPPORTING MATERIAL GUIDELINES

Supporting materials are the most important elements of your entry. This is what the judges will examine, watch and read during their decision-making. Each Lion has different material requirements. In some cases, they're mandatory and in some, they're recommended or optional.

It's important to remember there are strict rules about adding extra information or replacing files once you've submitted your entry. Please make sure you're absolutely ready to submit before you pay. If new results are collected after the entry has been paid for, we'll only accept additional written information in the results section of the entry form before 09 April 2026.

This does not apply to entry media, e.g. case films and JPGs, which cannot be updated under any circumstances. To avoid your work being withdrawn from the Festival, please adhere to the following guidelines:

- All case films and presentation images must be in English.
- Work that was not originally published in English (TVCs, print ads, billboards, etc.) can be translated or subtitled exactly as it was published or aired, so that it can be understood by the English-speaking Jury.
- If translating original video work, please note that dubbing is not allowed. Voice Overs can be translated, but visible speech must be kept in the original language and subtitled.
- Supporting materials must not contain any reference to your agency or any contributing creative companies or individuals.

LABELLING AND DELIVERY GUIDELINES

● ENTRY LABELS:

The individual entry labels are provided with your confirmation email, after payment. Labels have individual entry numbers that are specific to your entries and are vital for us to identify your physical materials when they arrive, as they will be made available to the Jury in the latter stages of judging. The entry labels must be attached to the supporting materials, as appropriate.

● LARGE ITEMS:

If your physical support materials are oversized or require assembly instructions, please contact awards@canneslions.com.

● We kindly ask you to refrain from sending us any boards as we are no longer accepting these as supporting materials.

- You must cover all courier and mailing costs in advance, to secure the delivery of your materials. The Festival organisers cannot accept responsibility for packages at any stage of transit. If entries are lost, held up at customs or require payment for delivery, resolution is the sole responsibility of the entrant.
- A Customs Invoice should be included in your consignment, saying: 'FESTIVAL MATERIAL - NO COMMERCIAL VALUE'. A nominal amount of money, e.g. €1.50 per material, can be stated if necessary.
- Products should be insured against damage or loss in transit or on Festival premises. We don't accept any liability for any loss, damage or expense incurred.
- Physical support material becomes the property of the Festival organisers once it has been received. We cannot return materials to entrants after judging. In exceptional circumstances and at the Festival's discretion, we may agree to return large or valuable items. However, this must be pre-agreed with the Festival in writing by 15 May 2026, and all transit costs must be covered by the entrant and collection must be arranged between 06 –31 July 2026.

TOP TIPS FOR YOUR CASE FILM

BE CONCISE

You're dealing with professionals who are perfectly capable of grasping whether a project has merit based on a concise, coherent explanation.

BE UPFRONT

Explain the idea upfront and quickly so the Jury can understand the dimensions of the campaign and its results from the very beginning. Avoid using unnecessary buildup or stylistic filler. Treat your case film like a piece of editorial. All the key information early on – expansion of the idea to follow.

TAKE A FRESH PERSPECTIVE

You may have lived and breathed the work, but the Jury hasn't. Look at the idea with a fresh pair of eyes and break it down to its core for a new audience.

MAKE IT EASY FOR THEM

The idea should speak for itself. Avoid creating barriers with unnecessary and elaborate production values. Keep it straightforward.

RESULTS

Make sure you provide them. And that they are robust, meaningful and measurable. Be honest, specific and provide workable, quantitative figures and stats. In some categories, results count for 30% of the mark. Clearly link your results back to original goals, strategies and objectives.

SIMPLICITY

Less is always more. So many case films fail to communicate a clear idea and a compelling strategy that isn't cluttered and confusing. The need for focus and clarity cannot be underestimated.

CULTURE AND CONTEXT

Our Juries are international, and English is not always their first language. Respect this diversity. Entries that rely on a cultural nuance or unfamiliar cultural context should come with additional information.

TELL A STORY

Structure your explanation around a simple, powerful and clear narrative. Storytelling is key.

INDUSTRY JARGON

Avoid industry jargon and marketing speak. Don't sell – explain your work. A case film with excessive hype and empty statements will not impress the Jury.
